tends to indicate that the future seat of the government of the German Democratic Republic may be Leipzig. The reasons for this measure reportedly are the same as those which influenced the Soviets.

3. On 19 April 1950, a man was arrested in Sebnitz by several police officials wearing civilian clothes. Two Russians in civilian clothes were allegedly in the group of these police officials. The officials together with the man arrested left the scene in two cars which had Thuringian licence plates. Two Soviet officials searched the house of the man arrested on 5 Nay 1950. It is known that the arrest as well as the house search was ordered by an office in Thuringia, probably in Jeimar. Sebnitz on the other hand is located in Saxony.
